HOW TO WRITE A LEGAL MEMORANDUM

LEGAL MEMO: FOUNDATIONS OF ALL LEGAL ANALYSIS

SINGLE MOST IMPORTANT SKILL FOR LAW STUDENTS TO LEARN

1. Lawyer's basic work product — it gives a legal opinion.
2. Combines organization, issue framing, and legal analysis in a professional format.

EXAMPLES IN THIS CHART

1. Issues in italics usually are requests to identify what immediately follows them as a first teaching purpose.
2. Issues in bold are things that you would have to supply, i.e. proper citations to legal authority.

SAMPLE HEADING

This sample heading follows a typical format; the "TO" and "FROM" items identify who wrote the memo for whom; the "DATE" items give the effective date of the legal research and analysis — a key fact on which future readers will rely; the "RE" item specifies the case name, the internal file number, and the memo's general purpose.

Memorandum of Law

TO: Thomas Jefferson
FROM: Patrick Henry
DATE: September 1, 1997
RE: State v. Kellage, file no. 5797; Defendant's potential criminal liability for larceny under Virginia law.

DEFINING THE ISSUE

SPOTTING AND DEFINING "ISSUES" IS CRUCIAL

1. An "issue" is a question about how law applies to a set of facts.
2. In the legal memo, the issue section presents the legal question using the key facts.
3. To draft the issue for the memo, follow these three steps:

Step 1: From your initial research, identify the elements of the legal principle.

(Example) Larceny is (1) the taking (2) and carrying away of (3) another person's property, with (4) intent to permanently deprive that person of it.

Step 2: Locate the key facts that might either prove or disprove the elements of the crime or legal theory. Before starting to write the memo, make an outline that matches the facts with the elements of the legal theory.

(Example outline of elements and facts)
factorem (1) Del. picked up purse factorem (2) Del. carried away purse factorem (3) Mrs. Harris owned purse
Del. said he was going to turn it in factorem (4) Del. still had it 45 minutes later
Del. did not tell police until asked
Del. explained his plan to turn it in
Purse was unopened, plainly visible in the car.

Step 3: Write the question that the memo will answer, in one concise sentence (if possible) using the key facts that apply to the elements of the jurisdiction.

ELEMENTS OF A LEGAL MEMORANDUM

HEADING

1. Standard form.
2. Identify case, date, from legal issue, writer.

ISSUE

1. States the legal question which the memo answers.
2. Usually one sentence that also mentions the key facts that underlie the legal problem.

CONCLUSION

1. Gives the brief answer to the question stated in the issue.
2. If a sentence that sets the key facts and legal points that support the answer.

FACTS

1. Sets forth the facts which the legal analysis will use, plus enough background facts to give context.
2. Not a detailed recitation of all of the facts of the case.

DISCUSSION

1. Organizes and explains the analysis of the facts and law that leads to the Conclusion.

TIP: Try writing the memo in this order:

- (1) Write the Heading.
- (2) Write the first draft of the Facts section.
- (3) Research the legal theories that apply.
- (4) Write the Issue section.
- (5) Write the Discussion section (legal analysis).
- (6) Write the Conclusion section.
- (7) Revise and trim the Facts section to include only the relevant facts and necessary background.

EXPLAINING THE FACTS

ELEMENTS

1. The Facts section should contain the facts important to the legal analysis, plus background information for context.
2. In most memos, explain the facts in chronological order.
3. Use all relevant facts, whether favorable or unfavorable to the client.
4. Do not argue or draw conclusions; just tell the story in this section.

SAMPLE FACTS SECTION (LARCENY PROBLEM)

"Memories are the following events at about 4:30 p.m. on July 1, 1997. Mrs. Harris's purse was on the sidewalk outside the grocery store. Defendant stood near the purse, looked around in all directions, then picked up the purse, he carried the purse to his car, put it in the back seat, and drove away."

"At about 4:15 p.m. the same day, a policeman stopped Defendant on a tip from one witness. When the policeman came up to Defendant's car window, Defendant did not say anything about the purse until he was specifically asked. Defendant then told the policeman that, "I was going to take the purse to the police station tomorrow as soon as I see it open it." The policeman reported that the purse was sitting on the back seat in plain view, and was closed."

"Once the purse was in custody, Mrs. Harris inspected it but found nothing missing from its contents. Mrs. Harris suggested, however, the district attorney to charge Defendant with larceny."

SAMPLE ISSUE SECTION

1. Good example Did Defendant commit larceny under Virginia law when he picked up the shopper's purse, put it into his car and drove away, but explained that he was planning to turn the purse into the police the following day?
2. Poor example Did Defendant commit larceny under Virginia law? (Missing one of the key facts — issue is too broad)
3. Poor example Did Defendant commit a crime by taking a purse that did not belong to him? (Missing one of the jurisdiction, the actual legal theory, and key facts for each element)
4. Poor example Can a Defendant be convicted of larceny under Virginia law? (This is a different issue — the correct issue involves the particular facts of this case, not all defendants generally)

I like the Legal Barcharts series. They pack a LOT of information into a very manageable format, and then make it easy to keep handy. The lamination is very high quality as well.

BETTER THAN ANY LAWYER I HAVE MET

I got this quick study to help me refresh; I had been out of the legal field the past 7 years as a legal assistant. It's been helpful though I am using other resources to better my skills.

We own a series of Quick Study guides. These guides are clearly not a substitute for 500-page study books, but are generally very useful quick references. We routinely consult the Quick Study guides when we need to write something with a legal slant, on a scientific topic, or merely a flawlessly punctuated document. This is a generic review, as one could always argue what each Quick Study guide should contain or shouldnâ™t contain. As a general, basic reference, the sturdy guides are excellent, well-organized, and concise.

Grandson new student of Law School, Said they were a great tool for beginner studying Law.

Nice, concise, understandable terminology and definitions for the newly minted attorney or paralegal who wants a "quick reference" sheet at hand.

Purchased to help with the paralegal program I'm doing. A great go to for an overview. Very happy with them!

Excellent resource. Great value!
