I bought this book for a friend's 40th Birthday party. It was a big hit and enjoyed by all. It is a pop quiz book with mostly cute answers (some not as cute but still fun). Someone read the questions while the group tried to guess the answers. It is really a unisex book although there is a lady on the cover. Not a big deal to most. Cute book and fun gag gift.

I guess I didn't read the description well enough--I bought this for my son, who is turning 40. However, when it arrived, it became obvious that it is for an audience of women. Too bad for me, but I'm sure someone will enjoy it.

This is a very cute book. I bought this as a present for a 40th birthday - for a guy. It does seem to be geared a little more towards women, but he still loved it and thought it was funny. It's a nice size book to add to a bag full of other cute 40th birthday gifts. Can't go wrong with purchasing this for a 40th birthday present!

Some good jokes, some pretty lame but it makes a better gift than a lame card. Funny to review with a group of 40 years (especially when they all have to take out their glasses to read it)

For a joke book... This is pretty good. It was just a little something to add to the gift. Book was much smaller than I expected, but I happen to have preferred it that way, so it worked out perfect!

I bought this to add to a birthday gift for a friend. It's a cute little book and it's perfect to give as gift. It's a little small to give as a gift alone but I think it's perfect as an add on gift.

Funny, anecdotal book about turning 40. I gave it to a girlfriend for her birthday and she enjoyed it. Some of the jokes are a bit corny but it pretty much is exactly what I expected it to be.

This book was hilarious. It made me laugh and it certainly made my dad laugh who was turning 40. I included it in a gift basket with other little trinkets. The book was a great addition.
